

Rowley 21st April 1778.

Sir. We received your Letter dated 15th of April Instant In which you inform us that Delegates from a Number of Towns have Met at Mr. Treadwells for the purpose which the Town of Newbury-Port proposed. and of the adjournment of the Convention, and their earnest desire of the general Attendance of the Towns (by their Delegates) at the Adjournment.
We would inform you that Since we received the Letter from Newbury-Port, we call'd a Town Meeting and inserted a Clause in the Warrant, to see if the Town would choose Delegates to sit in County Convention as Newbury-Port proposes. in said Meeting the Letter from Newbury-Port was Read, and talk'd upon, and it was tryed by Vote, if the Town would choose a Delegate or Delegates to joyn in County Convention, it pass'd in the Negative. The form of Government was read in said Meeting, and a number of Articles Objected against, and the Town chose a Committee to Consider of and amend said Articles, and make report to the Town at May Meeting

To Mr. Daniel Noyes Clerk of Convention.
